A. Academic Factors

Code	Statement
A1	I am satisfied with my current academic performance.
A2	I can understand the lessons and topics discussed in my classes.
A3	I can manage the academic workload required by my degree program.
A4	I can learn difficult topics when I put in enough effort.
A5	I am confident that I can pass my enrolled subjects.
A6	I am confident that I can complete my degree program.
A7	I can explain the topics I have learned to my classmates when they ask.
A8	I do well in exams and written assessments in my subjects.
A9	I can find ways to improve my grades when they go down.
A10	I know which subjects I need to improve in and what I need to do about it.

S. Socioeconomic Factors

Code	Statement
S1	My available budget is sufficient to cover my school-related expenses.
S2	I can afford the transportation expenses needed to attend classes.
S3	I have reliable access to a computer or device for my academic tasks.
S4	I have reliable access to the internet for my academic requirements.
S5	My financial situation allows me to focus on my studies.
S6	I have sufficient financial support to continue my education.
S7	I can handle unexpected expenses without having to stop or delay my studies.
S8	I have enough money for my daily meals while attending classes.
S9	I have a quiet place at home or nearby where I can study.
S10	My work or household responsibilities do not get in the way of my studies.

B. Behavioral Factors / Student Engagement

Code	Statement
B1	I attend my scheduled classes regularly.
B2	I set aside regular time to study or review my lessons outside class.
B3	I actively participate in class activities and discussions when given the opportunity.
B4	I make use of the learning materials and resources provided by my instructors when studying.
B5	I complete my academic requirements within the given deadlines.
B6	I continue working toward my academic goals even when I experience difficulties in my studies.
B7	I take notes or make summaries during or after my lessons.
B8	I join study groups or academic activities outside regular class hours.
B9	I ask my instructors or classmates for help when I do not understand a lesson.
B10	I stay focused during class and avoid distractions such as my phone.

C. Competence / Employability Skills

Code	Statement
C1	I can communicate my ideas clearly to other people.
C2	I can work effectively with other people in a team.
C3	I can identify problems and develop appropriate solutions.
C4	I can adapt to new tools, technologies, and changing situations.
C5	I can use digital tools and technology effectively for academic or practical tasks.
C6	I can apply what I learned in school to practical tasks or real-world situations.
C7	I can organize my work and responsibilities to complete assigned tasks.
C8	I can learn new skills when a task or situation requires them.
C9	I show responsibility and professional behavior when working on tasks or with others.

C10	I can accept feedback and use it to improve my work.

P. Psychological Capital / Career Readiness

Code	Statement
P1	I am confident that I can successfully handle difficult tasks related to my studies or future work.
P2	When I encounter a problem, I can think of different ways to overcome it.
P3	I continue working toward my goals even after experiencing setbacks.
P4	I generally expect that my efforts toward my studies and career will lead to positive results.
P5	I can recover and continue after academic or personal difficulties affect my progress.
P6	I believe I can improve my abilities through effort, learning, and experience.
P7	I can think of many ways to reach my career goals.
P8	I feel energized when pursuing my goals for my studies and future work.
P9	I stay calm and keep going when things do not go as planned.
P10	I look at the bright side of difficult situations.

E. Self-Perceived Employability / Readiness

Code	Statement
E1	I feel prepared to apply for a job related to my degree program.
E2	I believe I can demonstrate useful skills to a potential employer.
E3	I can explain how my knowledge and experiences are relevant to a future job.
E4	I am confident that I can continue developing the skills needed for my chosen career.
E5	I believe I can find a job related to my degree after graduation.

E6	I know what kinds of jobs I can apply for with my degree program.
E7	I believe employers would value the skills I have gained in school.
E8	I am confident that I can do well in a job interview.
E9	I believe I can find other work opportunities if my first-choice job is not available.
E10	I have a plan for what I will do after graduation.